North Somerset High Street Innovation Fund

Business Support

Expression of Interest Form

As part of a package of support from the High Street Innovation Fund North Somerset Council will be working with the North Somerset Enterprise Agency to fund, free one to one business support for 'high street' retailers in North Somerset. This support and advice will initially take the form of diagnostic session with a specialist business advisor who will work with you to discuss the key issues which you feel are affecting the success and future development of your business. The advisor will also look to identify areas in which you might benefit from some further specific advice which may also be funded as part of the Grant scheme.

Depending on the needs of your business advice may include; business planning, marketing and promotion, window displays, merchandising, market research, internet marketing, pricing, finance, accounting & stock control, customer service, managing people and legal stuff.

Please complete the Expression of interest form below and your details will be passed onto The North Somerset Enterprise Agency to arrange a convenient time to visit your business.
