

'Made in North Somerset' a three week celebration of food & drink, arts & crafts

Saturday 12 September –
Sunday 4 October 2015

It's that time of year when we would like you to start thinking about, and submit, your events and activities for our fifth 'Made in North Somerset' festival. The three week event is designed to raise the profile and people's awareness of food, drink, art and craft businesses whose products are made in North Somerset.

The festival consists of 'Meet the Maker' events and activities, hosted by businesses on their premises during the three weeks. Last year's events included brewery and dairy open days, cake decorating workshops, vineyard tours, food and drink masterclasses, local menu's, cookery demo's, tastings, apple pressing, creative workshops, art and craft demo's, talks, and open studios. We'd like you to show people how your products are made, grown, reared, created and what goes into making your product – not only the quality of the materials and ingredients but also your knowledge and expertise and the time and skills involved.

For independent cafés, restaurants and pubs, we'd like to involve you too. If you would like to create a special North Somerset menu throughout the festival, featuring local producers, please get in touch for further details.

The finale event is our 'Made in North Somerset Showcase' – this event will showcase some of the most talented art and craft businesses and local food and drink producers in North Somerset. The market will take place on the 3 & 4 October from 10am – 4pm at Tyntesfield.

Why should you get involved?

- It's a fantastic opportunity to raise your profile alongside a host of other high quality independent producers and businesses in North Somerset.
- The 2014 Meet the Maker events at Thatchers, The Story Group, Clevedon Craft Centre, Lye Cross Farm, Aldwick Court Farm Vineyard and Butcombe Brewery attracted between 600 – 1000 visitors, other smaller events attracted on average 100 visitors.
- The 'Made in North Somerset Showcase' at Tyntesfield, 2014 attracted in the region of 10,000 visitors.
- We know of 26 new wholesale orders that were placed with businesses last year.
- Your business will be featured in the Festival programme. 20,000 programmes will be printed and distributed across North Somerset, Bristol, Bath, Somerset and South Gloucestershire.
- The full festival programme is included in the North Somerset Life magazine distributed to 120,000 households and also distributed in Mendip Life.
- Our dedicated website pages innorthsomerset.co.uk/madein, Facebook and Twitter accounts are heavily promoted and viewed.
- Downloadable @Madeinnsomerset and @TimeoutNS promotional materials and event signage are available.

Meet the Maker Events

Help us create an exciting programme of food, drink, arts and craft related events across the three weeks. The 'Meet the Maker' events are a great chance for you to explain to people what is unique about your business – what you do and why you do it, it's also a valuable opportunity for you to get some direct feedback from them and it gives people a fascinating insight into the person behind the product.

Together the variety of events across the area creates a fascinating programme that is attracting a growing audience year on year. Your event will feature in the 20,000 festival programmes, website, Facebook and Twitter promotions.

The events may be as small or elaborate as you wish, on one day or throughout the festival. but must offer something different, i.e if your studio or shop is normally open or you normally hold a certain workshop we would like you to be able to offer something that is only available during the festival. Events may be pre-booked if you need to limit numbers. The timing of your event should suit you but also your intended audience and could range from an hour to a whole day. Last year several businesses in Wrington chose to run their events on the same day which worked really well as people enjoyed moving between the venues. You could also invite smaller producers to join you to create a larger event.

Please look at our website pages to see what events took place last year www.innorthsomerset.co.uk/madein Events in previous years have included vineyard, cider and brewery tours, apple pressing, cookery demonstrations, wild food foraging, cookery workshops, art and craft taster sessions, exhibitions and family craft workshops,

The Economic Development team at North Somerset Council take responsibility for the overall coordination and promotion of the programme but we do need you to help us promote your own events and the programme as a whole through your websites, mailing lists, social media and word of mouth etc.

If you've taken part in previous years we'd love you to do something a little different this year as this will keep the programme both interesting and varied.

Do get in touch if you would like to discuss your event in any way – we are more than happy to make time to come out and visit your premises if that would be helpful.

There is a one-off charge of £25 to list your event/s within the programme. 20,000 programmes are produced in addition to coverage in North Somerset Life and substantial social media coverage.
